

Generally fair.

The Magic of Merit And Money Saving

Make brisk selling of these

MEN $15

and $18

SUITS at $11.65

The suits hold the palm for swell make and appearance.

Goods, pattern and style are what fashion demands. Shut your eyes to the price. It is cheap, but it buys suits that are A No. 1.

It's worth an early visit—this up-to-date special at a down-to-bottom price.

The

There Is Only

One Refrigerator

AND THAT ONE IS

THE GURNEY

We are State Agents. A full line in stock.

Indianapolis Stove Co. 71 and 73

South Meridian St.

FRANK H. CARTER, DRUGGIST,

300 Massachusetts Avenue.

When sick you select your doctor first, and then your druggist. We are in the drug business.

BIG FOUR ROUTE

TO THE

BIG CONVENTIONS

IN 1896.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONVENTION,

St. Louis, June 16.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION,

Chicago, July 7.

NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION,

Buffalo, July 3.

Y. P. S. C. E. CONVENTION,

Washington, July 9.

B. Y. P. U. OF AMERICA,

Milwaukee, July 6.

NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT, G. A. R.,

St. Paul, Sept. 1 to 4.

Elegant Through Trains. Wagner Sleeping

Cars. Buffet Parlor Cars. Exquisite

Dining Car Service.

No Tunnel at St. Louis. Best terminal at Chicago. Through to Buffalo. Through trains to Washington. The popular line of the G. A. R.

General Passenger and Ticket Agent.

M. O. MCORMICK,

Passenger Traffic Manager.

Cincinnati, O.

FIRST CINCINNATI EXCURSION

VIA

C., H. &amp; D. R. R.,

Sunday, - - - May 17

$1.50 RATE

ROUND TRIP $1.50

Special train service to m. Leave Cincinnati, returning 7 p. m.

No stops at way stations. Fast time and ample accommodation on sale at Union Depot and No. 3 West

Washington street.

O. W. HAYLER, D. T. A.

One Dollar

CEAR LAKE

Sunday, May 24

Special train, 7 a. m.

Leave Cedar Lake 6:30 p. m.

The Indianapolis Warehouse Co.

Warehousing, Forwarding and Commission Merchants.

Money advanced on consignments. Registered receipts given. Nos. 253 to 275 SOUTH PENNSYLVANIA

ST. 112327. Telephone 1282.

5 Per Cent.—Loans—5 Per Cent.

Loans in large sums on business property at 5 per cent, promptly made in large cities and towns only.

C. S. Warburton,

26 Lombard Building.

ILLINOIS BANK ROBBED.

Cashier at Buffalo Bound and Gagged

and $11,000 Carried Away.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 14.—The most daring bank robbery which has ever occurred in this part of Illinois was perpetrated at noon to-day at Buffalo, thirty-miles east of this city, the cashier being bound and gagged and $11,000 carried off by the robbers. The bank of Buffalo is owned by A. A. Pickrell &amp; Co. This noon two men entered the bank just as Carl

Kloppenburg, the cashier, was locking up the safe preparatory to going to his dinner.

Kloppenburg was the only person in the bank at the time. The robbers seized him from behind, bound him and gagged him and then took all the money in the bank, amounting to $11,000. William P. Dawson, the cashier, the cashier, was later seen released him. Kloppenburg could give but a meager description of the robbers. It is thought they are experts at the business.

The country has been scourged by mounted men without success.

Judge sued for $200,000 Damages.

CHICAGO, May 14.—Thomas J. McNichols,

County Commissioner, began a damage suit

this afternoon against Judge John Barlow

Payne for $200,000. The suit is the result of a charge made against McNichols by Judge Payne that the commissioner received bribe in the O'Brien murder case to exert his influence in preventing the indictment of a saloon keeper O'Brien for wife murder.

A GALLOWS VERDICT

SCOTT JACKSON'S REWARD FOR THE

MURDER OF PEARL BRYAN.

Arrested, Tried and Found Guilty.

Within Fifteen Weeks After the Crime Was Committed.

NERVEST MAN IN COURT

THE PRISONER PALED SLIGHTLY,

BUT NOT A MUSCLE TREMBLED.

After Taken Back to Jail He Wept and

Declared the Finding Was Unjust

and Not Proven.

WALLING'S BRUTAL REMARK

TOLD PEARL'S FATHER JACKSON

WAS GUILTY AND SHOULD HANG.

Sheriff Plummer Feared a Lynching in Case of Acquittal—Motion for a New Trial.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NEWPORT, Ky., May 14.—As was predicted when court adjourned Wednesday night, the jurors in the Scott Jackson case returned a verdict at noon to-day. The case was given into their hands at 8:45 o'clock this morning and when they returned they took with them a copy of Judge Helm's instructions, Pearl Bryan's bloody clothes, taken from the body found at Fort Thomas on Feb. 1, together with letters of Will

Wood and Scott Jackson and all the other evidence that was shown in evidence, including Pearl's blood-stained valise. In just two hours and eleven minutes, at 12:55 o'clock, the jury returned with the verdict, which read:

"We, the jury, find the defendant, Scott

Jackson, guilty of the murder of Pearl

Bryan, and fix the punishment at death.

From all outward appearances Scott Jackson was the most composed man in court.

He neither trembled nor changed his position in the chair where he had been sitting during the time the jury was out. When the members filed in he looked slightly forward.

When the clerk read the verdict his eyes were directed toward the floor. The only thing to indicate that he suffered was a change of color that lasted a few seconds only. Then he leaned back in his chair and seemed to sigh, a man very tired, and at 2:30 o'clock the time set for the opening of court, the spectators' seats were only scarcely occupied, and few more came in when court was finally called to order at 2:50 o'clock. Judge Helm entered the court room at this time and Sheriff Plummer at once called court to order. Judge Helm then ordered the jury and the prisoner brought in,

and when they had taken their seats Judge

Helm said, addressing the jury:

"Gentlemen of the jury, you have heard the evidence in this case, and you have heard my instructions as to the arguments of the counsel, and you now will retire and consider in your room this case."

Judge Helm then handed the jury a typewritten copy of the court's instructions, and under the escort of the sheriff, he retired.

The jury was then left in the jury box,

and the court room was left to the spectators. The jury was then left in the jury box,

and the court room was left to the spectators. The jury was then left in the jury box,

and the court room was left to the spectators. The jury was then left in the jury box,

and the court room was left to the spectators. The jury was then left in the jury box,

and the court room was left to the spectators. The jury was then left in the jury box,

and the court room was left to the spectators. The jury was then left in the jury box,

and the court room was left to the specta-

FLOP OF A REED MAN

GEO. L. WELLINGTON, OF MARYLAND,

JOINS THE MCKINLEY BAND.

With Fourteen Delegates, He Jumps

on the Wagon, After a Conference with the Obolans' Cousins.

QUAY CONFERS WITH PLATT

IN THE HOPE OF EFFECTING A DEAL

FOR THE VICE PRESIDENCY.

He Is Anxious to Save Something Out of the Favorite Son Wreck, and Hopes to Get Second Place.

YESTERDAY'S CONVENTIONS

WEST VIRGINIA REPUBLICANS IN-

STRUCT FOR THE "APOSTLE."

Colorado Silverites Put Senator Teller

at the Head of Their Delegation—

The Louisiana Delegation.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Representative

Wellington, of Maryland, the leader of the Republican party in that State, announces that at least fourteen of the sixteen delegates from his State will vote for McKinley on the first ballot. The full significance of Mr. Wellington's announcement will be better recognized when it is understood that at the Maryland convention the efforts of the McKinley men to instruct the delegates at large for McKinley were defeated by an overwhelming majority and Mr. Wellington was known to hold the great mass of delegates in his hand and he had been always counted as a determined Reed man.

The news that came to-day that Senator

Elkins had left West Virginia to go to Mc-

Kinley was another disappointment to Quay and the anti-McKinley men in general. Mr.

Quay's purpose in hastening to New York is believed to be an effort to form a combine with Platt by which the vice presidency

can be saved, and it is seriously accepted here that Mr. Quay wants the vice presidency. His action in calling the roll of the delegates at the convention did last Monday to assure himself of their loyalty, shows that he does not propose to turn them over without some recompense and any demand of his, backed by sixty votes, is very apt to receive careful consideration. Mr. Wellington expressed his belief that the convention will adopt an unequivocal sound money platform and that no objection will be made by McKinley, no matter how straightforward is the declaration for sound money.

As for Mr. Reed, the daily frictions between the Republican members and Andrews, indicate beyond question how entirely Mr. Reed's colleagues consider him out of the race. Indeed, it can be asserted now that if Mr. Reed wants to succeed himself as Speaker of the next House he will have to make the fight of his life to get it.

No Conference of Anti-McKinleyites.

NEW YORK, May 14.—Ex-Senator Platt

when seen at the Fifth-avenue Hotel tonight denied the knowledge of a conference to be held in New York to-day to take place in this city during the evening. According to the report Hon. Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, and Senator M. S. Quay, of Pennsylvania, were to meet Mr. Platt in New York to-day to discuss the question of the platform to be adopted at the Fifth-avenue Hotel during the evening, and Mr. Plattasserted that he was not seeking of them, also that he was entirely ignorant of their whereabouts.

MCKINLEY AND SOUND MONEY.

Platform Adopted by Republicans of Washington State.

EVERETT, Wash., May 14.—The Republican State convention met to-day. John F.

BOWMAN AND FOSTER

RETIRED BY THE METHODIST EPIS-

COPAL GENERAL CONFERENCE.

Two Most Venerable Prelates of the Church Deprived of Their Honors and Titles as Bishops.

TOO OLD TO BE IN HARNESS

AND REMOVED FROM OFFICE ON THE GROUND OF NON-EFFECTIVENESS.

Touching Scene When the Two Men

Arose in the Conference and Begged

to Be Allowed to Retire.

DELEGATES TO VOTE TO-DAY

WHEN TWO NEW BISHOPS WILL PROBABLY BE ELECTED.

Chaplain McCabe a Leading and Possibly Successful Candidate—A Great

Victory Won by the Laymen.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

CLEVELAND, O., May 14.—The General

Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church retired "Fathers" Bowman and Foster on the ground that they had become non-effective bishops, and that the interests of the church would be best served by younger men. Though removed from the board of bishops, the two venerable prelates will be supported by the book concern. The bishops made a pathetic plea to be retired, but it looked for a time as if the report of the committee on the retirement of the two bishops would be stormy discussion, however, it went through

Two new bishops will be elected to-day.

The laymen scored their first victory yesterday. True, it was only along the skirts line, but it was only along that line that the battle was fought, but it was fought with a determination that forebodes a vic